MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: DoJ Testimony on S. 1815 - Transmitting Agency Views to OMB

1. On 18 April 1986, I called Brandon Blum, Legislative Analyst, Office of Management and Budget (OMB) to transmit to him the Agency's views on testimony by the Department of Justice on S. 1815, legislation to ban the private use of polygraphs.

2. The Agency had two comments on the testimony. On page 9, the Agency objected to the language which Justice proposed for a government exemption to S. 1815. I suggested that the language be changed to read as follows:
